

|  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|--|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Object: Wärmetechnische Blätter Heft 112. Exemplar Museum: Heimatmuseum AltenAuenweg 38 (StädtischesKlinikum)06847 Dessau-Roßlau0340-5011153; 0340-5196396museum@dessau-alten.de Collection: Junkers Literatur Inventorynumber: JL101 |
|--|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Description

Die Bedeutung von hohen Gebrauchs- und Verteilungsdrucken für Großgasversorgung.
Diese Schriftenreihe ist ohne Umschlag.

Basic data

|                     |                          |
|---------------------|--------------------------|
| Material/Technique: | Papier,geheftet          |
| Measurements:       | LxBxH 14,8 x 21 x 0,2 cm |

Events

|              |       |                                         |
|--------------|-------|-----------------------------------------|
| Published    | When  | 1927                                    |
|              | Who   | Junkers & Co. Warmwasser-Apparatefabrik |
|              | Where | Dessau-Roßlau                           |
| Written      | When  | 1927                                    |
|              | Who   | P. Spaleck                              |
|              | Where | Dessau-Roßlau                           |
| Commissioned | When  | 1927                                    |
|              | Who   | Hugo Junkers (1859-1935)                |
|              | Where | Dessau-Roßlau                           |

Keywords

- Gasapparat
- Gasheizung

- Gasttechnik